This image shows the completed LEGO Technic assembly for step 33. The structure is a complex multi-level build. On the left, a large black wheel is mounted on a vertical axle. The main body of the structure is built with grey and white Technic bricks, featuring a central vertical column and a large red rectangular section. At the top, there are two red flame-like pieces. To the right, a red crane arm is extended, holding a large red and black object. The base is constructed from grey Technic bricks, and a long red beam is visible at the bottom right.
